Power Knockout - Providence, RI

A 40-ton construction crane toppled over Wednesday afternoon in Providence, blocking Saratoga Street and knocking out power to part of the neighborhood. Providence Battalion Chief Christopher Lannan said firefighters happened upon the scene around 1:30 p.m. while responding to another call in the area. They found the crane on its side in the middle of Public Street, at a construction site for a new private school. Click here to read the full article.

ACCIDENT REPORTS

Fatal Crane Incident- Merritt Island, Fla

A family's home was damaged when a walkway gave out and the crane parked there tipped onto the home. "Typically, every day my husband and I would be sitting here having our coffee, getting our day going," Amanda Crane said. Amanda and Jim Crane were both supposed to be sitting in their kitchen when a crane truck collapsed on top of their home. It was Amanda Crane's day off, but she happened to be taking her new rescue dog to the veterinarian. Click here to read the full article.

ACCIDENT REPORTS

Crane Topples- Sharon, MA

A crane overturned along a Massachusetts highway Friday, impacting traffic in the Sharon area during the afternoon commute.

State police said they responded alongside the Sharon Fire Department to a tractor-trailer crash on Interstate 95 southbound near Exit 19.

The driver sustained non-life-threatening injuries, police said. Click here to read the full article.
